Reading

- Refer students to the Reading tips on page 21. Ask them to read the text and answer the questions.
- Each heading can only be used once.
- Underlining key words in the headings and paragraphs can be very helpful.
- Read the article again with the headings in place to check your answers.

The Reading tips (reading paragraphs headings) can be done in class or for homework. Students do it for revision, but there need to do the task for quality. It is not to take them about 10 minutes.

- When students have done the task (over for homework), ask them to check their answers in class. They should discuss with their partners.
- Check the answers with the class. Ask students to refer to the text to support their choices. Don't give students the text if their answers are wrong, but let them discuss questions with a partner.

Use of English

- Refer students to the Use of English tips on page 21. Students can prepare themselves for homework.
- Refer students to the Speaking task in class, read through the instructions and questions and check the letters that they might use

Speaking

- All preparation for the Speaking task (homework) refers to the tips on page 21. Students can prepare themselves for homework.
- Refer students to the Speaking task in class, read through the instructions and questions and check the letters that they might use
