'Light and Dark'
by Emily

Lighening, brightening, lighting up the sky.

I ncredible light, incredible dark, light will always help you see.

G entle light, gentle dark, dark is incredible at night time.

H elping light, makes it bright, it is helpful to read and write.

T hrowing glitter in the light makes it shimmer very bright!

D ark is not light, light is not bright, dark is helpful to get to sleep.

A t the night time sky, the stars shine so bright.

R evealing light in the night, catching the stars every night.

K andle light in the night, looking for the light switch every night.
